

Hamilton Ultimate Club Protecting Personal Information & Privacy Policy

Trust and goodwill are the foundations of any business or personal relationship. Protecting the personal information and privacy of our membership makes good sense. It enables us to continue to build trust and goodwill with you.

Why We Collect and Use Personal Information:

Collecting personal information is essential to our being able to provide you with the products and services you have inquired about or requested. Normally the personal information we collect will come directly from you. The following points clarify how personal information may be used:

- For registration in events, leagues and to assist in determining the eligibility for playoffs.
- For communication, service and administration purposes.
- To comply with legal and regulatory requirements.

Sharing Your Personal Information:

We will never share, sell, or rent individual personal information with anyone without your advance permission. Information submitted to us is only available to directors managing this information for purposes of contacting you or sending you emails based on your request for information and to legal entities or contracted service providers for purposes of providing services relating to our communications with you. In some cases we may be required to provide personal information to others to satisfy legal or regulatory purposes. We may also use personal information to assess future needs and to offer products and services.

Accuracy and Protection of Personal Information:

It is important that personal information be accurate and complete. This enables HUC to provide you with the best possible service. You have the right to access, verify and amend the information we have about you. We rely on you to keep us updated on your information. When your information changes (Example: address or telephone number change), please update the information through our website. We use multiple security measures to protect against the loss, misuse and alteration of data used by our system. We limit access to data to only those parties who are approved to have access to it.

Use of Cookies

Cookies are small pieces of information stored by your browser. HUC only uses cookies to enable secure members area sessions. HUC does not store, nor track any personal information through cookies.
